Parent Relationships & PSHE Questionnaire 2026

Question & Results	Further Support
1. I think PSHE including Relationships Education is an important part of the school curriculum. (0 point) 	Information on the importance of Relationships and PSHE Education can be found on the government website. Personal, social, health and economic (PSHE) education - GOV.UK Relationships and sex education (RSE) and health education - GOV.UK
2. My child enjoys PSHE including Relationships lessons. (0 point) 	Information on the Relationships & PSHE lessons can be found on the parent/carer zone on 1Decision. The school's progression document and curriculum map can be found on the school website. www.1decision.co.uk/resources/parent-carer-zone www.fairfieldroad.tameside.sch.uk/pshe/

3. I believe the PSHE including Relationships curriculum meets my child's needs. (0 point) 	Information on the Relationships & PSHE lessons, support and guidance can be found on the parent/carer zone on 1Decision. The school's progression document and curriculum map can be found on the school website. www.1decision.co.uk/resources/parent-carer-zone www.fairfieldroad.tameside.sch.uk/pshe/
4. I am aware of the PSHE including Relationships Policy that is in place. (0 point) 	The school's Relationships, PSHE & SMSC policy can be found on the school website for your reference. www.fairfieldroad.tameside.sch.uk/policies/

5. I know what my child is learning in their PSHE including Relationships lessons. (0 point) Agree 13 Unsure 5 Disagree 4 	The knowledge organisers on the school webpage show the important age-related information that children should know by the end of each year group. The parent information sessions on the school webpage tell you each year groups learning outcomes. www.fairfieldroad.tameside.sch.uk/pshe/
6. If I had any queries related to PSHE including Relationships, I would be happy to discuss them with the class teacher. (0 point) Agree 20 Unsure 2 Disagree 0 	Your child's class teacher is available to speak to should you have any questions regarding your child's Relationships & PSHE education.